$4 Million Gift To Help Build New Sports Arena: McLeodUSA Center

The University of Northern Iowa announced receipt of the largest gift in the institution's 124-year history on July 25, 2000. Clark and Mary McLeod, on behalf of McLeodUSA, will donate $4 million to help build a new sports arena on the UNI campus.

According to UNI President Robert D. Koob, this is the lead gift to support construction of the $15 million McLeodUSA Center, which will become the primary performance venue for UNI intercollegiate men's and women's basketball, volleyball and wrestling.

"This arena will be the first visible element of a collaboration between UNI and McLeodUSA to promote student excellence," said Koob. "Other elements of this collaboration may include internships, technology enhancements, scholarships and other opportunities."

"UNI is committed to its students and to serving the state of Iowa," said Clark McLeod, chairman and chief executive officer, McLeodUSA. "We have a similar commitment. Our future growth will depend on our ability to attract and retain people who are willing to grow, who value relationships, and who have the passion and commitment to be the best they can be. Iowa needs to keep these people here in the state. We see this gift as an investment. It's an investment in the University of Northern Iowa and it's an investment in future opportunities for all Iowans."

According to UNI Athletic Director Rick Hartzell, the arena will contain approximately 5,000 to 6,000 seats and will be located on the campus's west side, near the UNI-Dome and Wellness/Recreation Center. Once funds are secured, construction is expected to take approximately 24 to 36 months.

"UNI has some of the best student athletes, coaches and teams of any institution in the Midwest," said Hartzell. "What we don't have is a facility to match our people in these programs. The McLeodUSA Center will be one of the best of its size in the nation; an outstanding facility in which to showcase our quality student athletes and athletic programs."

The McLeod gift also is the lead gift to the UNI Foundation's $75 million "Students First" campaign – the next phase of a recent, highly successful scholarship campaign that exceeded its goal, raising $14 million. The new, broader "Students First" campaign will focus on scholarships, academic programs and facilities.

"This facility will serve the communities of the Cedar Valley," said Bill Calhoun, UNI vice president for Advancement and president of the UNI Foundation. "Similar to the Gallagher-Bluedorn Performing Arts Center, the McLeodUSA Center will be another result of a successful private/public partnership between UNI and the Cedar Valley."

New construction covered by the Students First campaign will include the McLeodUSA Center; R.J. McElroy Hall, the university's new early childhood education facility on the Allen College campus, in Waterloo; and a human performance center. Facilities needing renovation or equipment are Russell Hall, Lang Hall and McCollum Science Hall.

According to Calhoun, the official campaign kickoff will take place in 2002. The university's last major campaign ended in 1995, raising more than $33 million, and exceeding its goal of $25 million.

2000-01 OUTLOOK

NORTHERN IOWA

Improved Depth, Difficult Schedule To Headline 2000-01 Campaign

On the heels of three consecutive winning seasons for the first time since 1983, the 2000-01 Northern Iowa women's basketball team will have to rely on it's deepest team yet to compensate for the loss of three-time all-Valley pick Allison Starr and continue their winning ways.

"Right now we're faced with the difficult task of replacing Allison Starr," said UNI head coach Tony DiCecco. "In my estimation, she's the greatest basketball player in history at the University of Northern Iowa. What she brought in every facet of the game--offensively, defensively and leadership-wise--will be almost impossible to replace immediately. I'm hoping that down the road because of what she brought to this program, we'll have more like her."

"We also have to be able to replace Barb Bennett. When you take a look at your two most productive people from last year's squad, those people will no longer be in uniform for us. I think we have capable replacements, but one of the things we're hoping for is that the quality of depth will be the best in the six-year period since I've been here."

Ten letterwinners and three starters return from last season's 15-13 squad, but several questions will need to be answered for the Panthers to make a run toward their first-ever postseason bid.

Leading the list of liabilities is the health of UNI's players. A devastating run of injuries caused Panther players to miss a combined 135 games last season, including projected starters Nadine Brandt and Abbi Schutte to season-ending knee surgeries. Also missing significant portions of time last spring were starters Kary Dawson, Kara Opp and Nikki Spettel.

Though the rash of injuries prevented UNI from establishing much consistency last year, it did allow for several underclassmen to see extended playing time.

"Last year we dealt with adversity and the injury situation. So many people look at that as a negative, but in essence we now view it as a positive because of the development of some kids. You look at the Katie Miller's and Kara Opp's, we feel that because of that they have the potential this year of giving us more depth and that's something to build on."

*High school stats as a senior after redshirting last season

1998-99 statistics at UNI after missing 1999-00 due to injury

Steering the UNI backcourt will be a pair of senior guards who have split time at the point their first three seasons. Kary Dawson was UNI's second-leading scorer before missing the final 12 games with a foot injury last year. She's cut down on her turnovers each of the last three years and was ranked third in the Valley in steals and assists at the time of her injury.

"Kary's fall workouts have been really good in terms of strength with her foot. She also has flexibility and we could run her at either of the other guard positions."

Fellow senior Jill Seidl started UNI's final 20 games last season and had career-best point, assist, steal and rebounding totals. DiCecco calls Seidl one of the best backup point guards in the league.

"Jill does an extremely good job in the half-court. She made some positive strides last year when she took over at the point guard position after we moved Kary to the '3' and then when Kary went down with an injury."

Redshirt freshman Angela Bock is unquestionably UNI's quickest player, and will be used off the bench while being groomed for the point guard opening coming available next season.

"Angela may be one of the quickest kids I've ever coached. She's very offensive minded, but she has tremendous vision for a young point guard."

With three talented point guards and another half-dozen perimeter players, DiCecco envisions more of an up-tempo approach than in past years. Reigning Missouri Valley Conference Newcomer of the Year Katie Miller made the most of her playing time last year to become one of UNI's most consistent scoring threats. DiCecco predicts another breakthrough this season for her.

"Katie Miller has made a tremendous commitment to the development of her overall game and from a strength and conditioning standpoint. I think last year catapulted her to take the off-season very seriously and to really get after it."

Sophomore Kara Opp started 10 games as a true freshman last year and figures to continue her role as UNI's defensive stopper.

"In my estimation, Kara gave us as good a defensive effort as any freshman in the league last year. Seeing Kara this fall, it looks like she spent some time this summer to develop her offensive game."

Attempting a comeback from anterior cruciate ligament surgery she underwent last year, junior Nadine Brandt is likely to give UNI an explosive weapon off the bench. Already UNI's all-time leading three-point shooter, Brandt is considered one of the best three-point shooters in the MVC by DiCecco.

"Having Nadine Brandt back is something that's really big for us this year. If there's something that was lacking last year, we did not have the opportunity to spread defenses. She's got tremendous range and when she's in the game she has to be defended."

Junior Fran Reis returns as one of UNI's best-conditioned athletes after competing in several mini-triathlons last summer. Reis is a potent three-point threat who has worked hard to improve her ballhandling and defensive skills in recent years.

Junior Fran Reis is among UNI's best outside shooters.

2000-01 Outlook

Senior Nikki Spettel was named to the Missouri Valley's all-Defensive team last season.

Kate Cline's freshman year was plagued by inconsistency, but DiCecco thinks an extra year in the weight room will benefit Cline this winter. Cline started 13 MVC games last season for UNI.

"Kate gives us depth at the '4' position. We need to make sure she understands how important it is we get that on a regular basis for the success of our basketball team."

Emily Berry	5-8	Fr.	10.5*	2.4*	Cedar Falls, IA
Alex Cook	6-0	Fr.	13.3*	10.3*	Decorah, IA

Amy Swisher	5-10	Fr.	16.0*	6.0*	Cedar Falls, IA

*High school stats as a senior

UNI's roster includes four freshmen, three with ties to Cedar Falls. Guard/forward Amy Swisher boasts tremendous strength, outstanding passing ability, and a deft shooting touch that should adapt well to the college game.

"I think Amy Swisher has the ability to be a major impact player at the University of Northern Iowa. She's a different type of player than Allison Starr and Katie Miller. She can take you inside or outside and has a strong will to win."

A teammate of Swisher since sixth grade, freshman guard Emily Berry has the ability to play all three backcourt positions. DiCecco cites her all-around work ethic as a considerable strength.

"Emily is very committed to the sport and our program, and I think she has great court savvy and knowledge of the game. As a young player, that's only going to get better."

DiCecco raves about forward Alex Cook's raw athletic ability. Cook is a forward with the three-point range and a strong inside-outside game.

"Alex has the ability to run the floor as well any young power player that we've had at the University of Northern Iowa."

In addition, Cedar Rapids native Hannah Stolba will walk-on to the team and is expected to redshirt.

Panther Frontcourt

Name	Ht.	Yr.	PPG.	RPG.	Hometown
Jess Boline	6-2	So.	0.0	0.0	Bettendorf, IA
Kate Cline	6-1	So.	2.9	2.8	Elgin, IA
Abbi Schutte	6-4	Jr.	10.0	3.0	Sibley, IA
Katie Sorrell	6-4	So.	1.1	0.9	Winfield, IA
Nikki Spettel	6-0	Sr.	8.2	7.6	Cedar Falls, IA

1998-99 statistics at UNI after missing 1998-99 due to injury

In the Panther frontcourt, junior center Abbi Schutte is looking to recover from anterior cruciate ligament surgery and regain the skills that made her a Missouri Valley Conference all-Freshman selection backing up Tammi Blackstone at Drake three years ago. Schutte boasts tremendous hands, passing ability and mobility for a 6-4 post, and figures to be a focal point in the UNI offense this season.

"We're really pleased with the progress she's made since her surgery. At 6-4 she runs the floor extremely well and has tremendous strength and mobility in the post position. She has the ability to recognize double-teams and can find the open person. Abbi has the potential to be a big-time Missouri Valley player."

Depth at the center position is one question mark for the Panthers. Redshirt sophomore Katie Sorrell missed all of last season after undergoing reconstructive ankle surgery in the summer of 1999.

"Katie's an integral part if we're going to make another jump this season. The reason I say that is because you have to have depth at the '5' position. We need the quality minutes from her that she can provide."

Sophomore Jess Boline came to UNI to throw the discus and walk-on to the basketball team, but will be counted on to contribute good defense and grab some rebounds off the bench this season.

"Jess Boline gives us a lift in practice and has made a good jump in all categories. She has to be able to come in and give us a life in the time she's in there."

The heart and soul of the team, senior captain Nikki Spettel leads by example from the power forward spot. Spettel was named to the MVC's all-Defensive team last season while also ranking among the Valley's best in taking charges, rebounding and steals. Solid defense and rebounding have been her forte in her first three seasons at UNI, but don't be surprised if her senior year sees her break out offensively as opponents focus their attention on other weapons in UNI's high-powered offensive attack.

"Nikki is probably one of the premier defenders in the league and the Midwest. She has a tremendous knack of anticipating and knowing what will happen next. She's very good on the glass, and I think last year she became more comfortable on the offensive end."

Angela Bock (left), Ky Petersen (middle) and Nadine Brandt (right) were three members of the UNI backcourt sidelined last season. This winter Bock and Brandt will be counted on for their outside scoring ability.

Head Coach Tony DiCecco

Tony DiCecco – Head Coach

Tony DiCecco enters his sixth year at the University of Northern Iowa following his third consecutive winning season. Last season, his team battled injuries and a difficult schedule to finish 15-13 overall, including a 10-8 mark in the Missouri Valley Conference. His team capped the season with its first-ever win at the Missouri Valley Conference Tournament, where UNI upset Wichita State.

In his first four years, DiCecco revived a struggling program that went 4-22 the season prior to his arrival to a 19-8 mark in 1998-99. Along the way, he improved the Panther victory total by at least three each season.

Last season, Northern Iowa entered the season picked a best-ever fourth in the Valley's preseason poll, but mounting injuries dropped UNI a spot in the standings. However, what was arguably DiCecco's best coaching performance was recognized by second consecutive finish as runner-up for the Rawlings MVC Coach of the Year Award. In addition to his success on the court, DiCecco has become a beloved figure respected and admired by his coaching peers, the UNI campus, and the entire state of Iowa. A popular and entertaining speaker, he spends countless hours travelling the state promoting women's basketball and Panther athletics while speaking to boosters, schools and businesses.

The non-stop promotion of women's basketball in the Cedar Valley by DiCecco, his assistant coaches, and players has helped shatter school attendance records twice in the past three seasons. In 1998-99, the Panthers broke every attendance record possible, as they topped the 15,000 mark in total attendance. Additionally, the Panthers recorded their first-ever home sellout when they packed in 2,225 die-hard fans in the West Gym for a showdown against in-state rival Iowa State.

The tremendous improvements made under DiCecco's reign was recognized by UNI's selection to the 1999 Preseason Women's National Invitational Tournament. Last season the Panthers participated in tournaments hosted by UMKC and Syracuse as well. In year's past, DiCecco's teams have appeared in non-conference tournaments in New York, Florida, Nevada, Kansas and Missouri. This season, the Panthers will play in California during the Thanksgiving weekend.

During DiCecco's tenure the team has added live radio and Internet broadcasts of all games on 1650 KCNZ-AM and the weekly Tony DiCecco Radio Show, hosted each Wednesday night during the season at Ge-Angelo's in downtown Cedar Falls. Home crowd support has grown from an average of 267 fans per game before his arrival to 1,155 in 1998-99 and has averaged more than 1,000 fans per game during the past two seasons.

The accomplishments don't stop there either. In the years before DiCecco, the Panthers had a grand total of five road wins against current MVC teams. In the last two seasons alone, DiCecco's teams had nine road victories in Valley play. He has already guided first-ever road conquests over Bradley, Creighton, Evansville, Illinois State and Southern Illinois.

DiCecco, the sixth coach in Northern Iowa's 32 completed seasons of women's basketball, has already become the second-winningest coach in school history with a 65-70 record. He should surpass Wanda Green's 78-59 record for the top coaching mark in the program's history later this season.

DiCecco's focus is not simply on-court X's and O's. He's also concerned with the development of his players as young women, and strives to create a close-knit atmosphere among his team.

"Our kids are very close. Our staff is very close," he said. "These four years are very important ones for development for college players. Mom and Dad aren't around a lot, and it's a very big time for growth and development of adult habits and family habits. We try to create a family-type atmosphere where our kids can feel comfortable in coming to us with problems or excitement."

At Northern Iowa, DiCecco has had 16 players named to the Missouri Valley Conference Academic All-Conference teams.

"Our number one objective is to make sure that our girls graduate. We do everything in our power to make all UNI's resources available to our student-athletes."

The program's assistant coaches work closely with the Academic Advising staff to monitor the academic progress of all players in the program. All incoming freshmen, any player with a grade point deemed too low, and any player who wants organized study time are able to work at organized study tables to seek help.

"We feel the adjustment from high school to college academics is something kids probably need help with. We feel it's very beneficial for all our freshmen to come in and gain an understanding about study habits. We also feel that if you prove yourself in the classroom, study table is not mandatory. However, if the grade point falls below what we feel is acceptable, then we have study table to fall back on."

A 1971 graduate of Upper Iowa University in Fayette, Iowa, DiCecco arrived at UNI from Creighton University, where he served as an assistant coach for six seasons. During his tenure at Creighton, the Lady Jays compiled a 122-52 record, including two regular-season Western Athletic Conference (WAC) championships, one WAC Tournament Championship and two NCAA tournament appearances. Nine players were named first-team All-Missouri Valley Conference or All-Western Athletic Conference during his time with the Lady Jays.

Prior to his arrival at Creighton, DiCecco was the head girls' basketball coach at Montezuma High School in Montezuma, Iowa. He compiled a 306-69 record, including eight conference, 10 sectional and two regional championships. His teams made two Iowa State Tournament appearances.

In addition, he served as the head girls softball coach from 1974-86 at Montezuma and coached at West Central High in Maynard, Iowa from 1971-73. Head Coach Tony DiCecco

Tony DiCecco's Year-By-Year Summary at UNI

1995-96 (7-20, 6-12 Missouri Valley, 8th place)

DiCecco inherits a 4-22, last-place team and closes the season with a school-record six MVC wins. It's a difficult beginning, as UNI opens 1-12 and 2-16 before winning five of the final nine contests. UNI lands four players on the MVC All-Academic team.

1996-97 (10-16, 5-13 Missouri Valley, 9th place)

After opening 2-3, UNI picks up a 74-73 victory over in-state rival Iowa State to start a three-game winning streak and finish with a 5-3 non-conference record. UNI wins just two of its final eight games and misses the MVC Tournament by two games, but the 10 wins tie for the most in a season since 1982-83, UNI's first in Division I. Kelley Westhoff is named all-MVC honorable mention after leading the league in assists, and she is also one of six Panthers named to the league's All-Academic team. Allison Starr is named to the MVC's all-Freshman team.

1997-98 (14-13, 8-10 Missouri Valley, 7th place)

UNI gets its first winning season since 1982-83, while winning a school-record eight conference contests. UNI opens the season 6-1 and makes the conference tournament for the second time in three years. Four players are named to the MVC's All-Academic team, and sophomore Allison Starr is named first team all-MVC and all-Defensive. Freshman Nadine Brandt is named to the league's all-Freshman team. UNI breaks attendance records with 6,793 fans overall and an average of 618 per game.

1998-99 (19-8, 12-6 Missouri Valley, 3rd place)

The Panthers improve their victory total under DiCecco by at least three for the third time in as many years, finishing 19-8 overall and 12-6 in the Missouri Valley Conference. Junior Allison Starr repeats as first team all-MVC and all-Defensive, while sophomore Barb Bennett becomes the first player in MVC history to be named all-MVC honorable mention despite not starting a game. DiCecco finishes second in the league's Coach of the Year voting, while Nikki Spettel is named All-Academic honorable mention. In a year that six teams from the MVC make the postseason, UNI's third place-finish is inexplicably overlooked by the committee and they stay home. The Panthers break every attendance record possible, including a sellout crowd of 2,225 that packed the West Gym for Iowa State. UNI's season-average of 1,155 fans is nearly double the previous record of 618 fans per game set the previous year. KCNZ Radio broadcasts all 27 games live, while also adding the weekly Tony DiCecco Radio Show.

1999-2000 (15-13, 10-8 Missouri Valley, 5th place)

Northern Iowa picks up its' first-ever MVC Tournament victory in a season that will be remembered for the play of Allison Starr and numerous injuries that plagued the Panthers. Starr closes her stellar career with her third-consecutive all-MVC and all-Defensive selection and is also named MVC Defensive Player of the Year while setting new Panther records for points and rebounds in a season. Starr was also named to the league's All-Academic squad. Nikki Spettel joins Starr on the league's all-Defensive team, while Katie Miller used a MVC-record 53 consecutive free throws late in the season to get named MVC Newcomer of the Year. Injuries sideline Nadine Brandt, Ky Petersen, Katie Sorrell and Abbi Schutte for the season, while Kary Dawson, Kara Opp and Nikki Spettel all missed portions of time as well. Late-season wins with just eight players in uniform over conference leaders Wichita State and SW Missouri State are among the year's highlights.

Assistant Coaches

Tanya Warren
Assistant Coach

Tanya Warren is starting her sixth season with the Northern Iowa program, and seventh overall as an assistant coach at the college level.

Warren's main responsibilities include scouting, coaching UNI's perimeter players and helping with UNI camps. She is in her first season replacing Colleen Heimstead as the team's recruiting coordinator.

Last year perimeter players Katie Miller and Allison Starr both earned recognition from the Missouri Valley Conference when the year ended. Miller was named the league's Newcomer of the Year, while Starr was named to the MVC's first-team and all-Defensive squad for the third consecutive year.

Prior to her arrival at UNI, Warren was an assistant coach for one season at Iowa State. As a player, Warren earned numerous athletic accolades at Creighton, including Kodak All-District and preseason All-American honors. Warren ranks among the top-10 in virtually every category after averaging 16 points, 6.6 assists and 2.0 steals in her four-year stint as a Lady Jay. She finished her career shooting 51 percent from the field and 78 percent from the free throw line. Following her graduation with a degree in Social Work, her number was retired and she was inducted into the Creighton Hall of Fame.

The Des Moines native is also in the Iowa High School Hall of Fame and the Des Moines Lincoln High School Hall of Fame.

Warren resides in Cedar Falls.

Brad Nelson
Assistant Coach

Brad Nelson was hired as an assistant coach at UNI on August 22nd. Nelson assumes a spot left vacant when Colleen Heimstead accepted a job as UNI's Compliance/Life Skills Coordinator.

Nelson served as assistant head coach at Cedar Falls High School from 1997-99, helping the team to back-to-back Iowa State Tournament semi-final appearances. His 1998-99 team set an Iowa state record by averaging 85.9 points per game and finished 23-3. That squad, which contained Panther freshmen Amy Swisher and Emily Berry, was nationally-ranked by USA Today for the first time in school history as well. Nelson also coached another Panther freshman, Alex Cook, when she was at Cedar Falls High.

Prior to working at Cedar Falls High, Nelson served as an assistant coach at St. Ambrose University in 1995-96, where his team won regular-season and conference tournament championships while advancing to the NAIA Division II national quarterfinals.

While earning his Business Management degree from the University of Oregon, Nelson was head manager for the Ducks' men's basketball team from 1990-94. While in Eugene, he spent two years working under current Tennessee coach Jerry Green, and two years under 1981 National Coach of the Year Don Monson.

Nelson's wife, the former Jenny Sandvold, coached with the UNI women's basketball program as a graduate assistant from 1995-97. The couple has one daughter, Bailey, and identical twin boys Jacob and Brandon.

Allison Starr
Graduate Assistant

Joining the coaching staff this year as a graduate assistant coach is Allison Starr. One of the best all-around players in Missouri Valley Conference history, Starr competed for the Panthers from 1997-2000 as the centerpiece in the rejuvenation of UNI basketball.

In 1997 as a freshman, she was named to the Missouri Valley Conference's all-Freshman team. Her final three years, she was named all-MVC first team and to the Valley's all-Defensive Team.

Starr had arguably the greatest single-season in UNI history last year, leading the Panthers in steals and assists while setting new school records for points and rebounds in a season. A runner-up for the league's Player of the Year award, she was named the Valley's Defensive Player of the Year as well. A mark of consistency, Starr reached double-figures in the scoring column all but one game her senior year and led the 'Cats in scoring in 17 of UNI's first 18 games last year.

Starr capped her career with a school-record 96 consecutive starts, and also finished second in UNI history with 1,463 points, third with 711 rebounds, second with 274 steals, fifth with 278 assists and as the school record holder for free throws made, free throws attempted, offensive rebounds, defensive rebounds, double-doubles and steals per game.

In one of her final home games last season, Starr electrified the West Gym with a 25-point, 22-rebound and seven-assist effort vs. Wichita State, including the game-tying lay-up at the buzzer that sent it into overtime.

Starr is a native of Wellsburg, Iowa, where she was a state champion long jumper and three-time conference MVP in basketball. She resides in Cedar Falls.

Starr-Struck In '99-00; Panthers Withstood Injuries To Place Fifth in MVC

Allison Starr Leads the Way As Panthers Get First-Ever MVC Tourney Win

The University of Northern Iowa women's basketball team closed the 1999-2000 season by picking up its' first-ever MVC Tournament victory in a season that will be remembered for the play of Allison Starr and the numerous injuries that plagued the Panthers.

UNI was picked a best-ever fourth in the preseason MVC poll, but that was before a myriad of preseason injuries ended the seasons of Ky Petersen, Katie Sorrell and Nadine Brandt before they ever started. Following UNI's season-opening loss in the Preseason WNIT at Oklahoma State, starting center Abbi Schutte suffered a knee injury that cut her year short.

MVC Defensive Player of the Year Allison Starr guards the nation's leading scorer, Jackie Stiles

The injury bug returned on Dec. 27th, when freshman Kara Opp broke her collarbone in practice, causing her to miss the first eight games of the conference season. By the time Opp returned to the line-up on February 5, junior Kary Dawson had broken her foot, an injury that forced her to miss the final 12 games of the campaign. The injury bug hit a final time when junior Nikki Spettel missed the final four games of the regular season with a partially torn plantar fascia in her foot.

The Panthers made a significant upgrade in their non-conference schedule, opening with consecutive tournaments in the Preseason WNIT, at the UMKC Thanksgiving Classic and at the Syracuse Carrier Classic. UNI took a 2-3 record into its home opener, a 60-54 victory over Tulsa. Three days later they pounded eventual NCAA qualifier Brigham Young, 70-45, holding the Cougars to just 12 first-half points. A loss to #14 Iowa State gave UNI a 4-4 mark heading into the Missouri Valley Conference.

UNI opened the MVC slate with three straight road contests, going 1-2, before sweeping a three-game homestand vs. Illinois State, Indiana State and Bradley. A three-game losing streak was then followed by a season-long four-game win streak, snapped by Creighton on Feb. 25.

With an injured Nikki Spettel out of the lineup, the Panthers had just eight available players heading into a late-season homestand against the league's top two teams; Wichita State and SW Missouri State. Improbably, UNI beat them both. The 83-80 win over Wichita State was the break-out game for freshman Katie Miller, as she poured in a career-high 29 points, including 15-for-15 shooting from the free-throw line. Allison Starr had 25 points, a school-record 22 rebounds and seven assists in the dramatic win, including a game-tying basket that sent it into overtime.

Two days later, on regional television, the Panthers snapped a 25-game losing streak to SW Missouri State with a 75-67 win over the Lady Bears. Starr had 29 points, while Miller had 24 points and 11 rebounds in the win. The Panthers made all 24 free-throw attempts in the second-half, and a school-record 35 charity tosses for the game.

Riding a two-game losing streak and the stigma of an 0-4 all-time record in the MVC Tournament, the fifth-seeded Panthers dismissed the fourth-seed, Wichita State, 62-50, in the opening round. Their first-ever MVC Tournament win advanced the Panthers into the semi-finals, where they fell to eventual tourney champ Drake, 80-65.

Individually, senior Allison Starr capped off one of the best careers in MVC history by being named to the all-MVC and all-Defense teams for the third straight year. In addition to being named MVC Defensive Player of the Year, Starr was a runner-up to All-American Jackie Stiles for the league's Player of the Year award. Starr, who set new UNI records for points (545) and rebounds (236) in a season, was also named to the MVC's Scholar-Athlete second-team.

Junior Nikki Spettel, who took 33 of UNI's 38 charges this season, was also named to the MVC's all-Defense team. Freshman Katie Miller was named the Newcomer of the Year after challenging the NCAA record for consecutive free throws when she hit a league-record 53 in a row during an eight-game stretch.

The 15-13 record gives UNI three-consecutive winning seasons and four straight seasons of 10 or more wins, a first for the program since joining Division I.

The Missouri Valley Conference

This is the Missouri Valley Conference

The new millennium brings challenges for college sports programs, but the Missouri Valley Conference continues to lead by example as one of college athletics most progressive conferences. Now in its 94th year of existence, the Missouri Valley Conference emphasizes the importance of the student-athlete and is aggressive in its approach to provide opportunities for its member institutions.

Since its inception in 1907, the Missouri Valley Conference has been regarded as a leader by its peers among today's collegiate athletic conferences.

Based in St. Louis since 1985, the Conference has been aggressive in the approach to playing host to NCAA basketball championship events, producing a revenue-generating in-house television network, bidding out the right to play host to its several sport championships and landing title sponsorships for those events.

Under the direction of J. Douglas Elgin, the ninth commissioner in Valley history, The Valley has played host to the 1993, 1998 and 1999 NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Midwest Regionals. In fact, the Missouri Valley Conference plays host to four NCAA basketball championship events in the next five years.

Starting in 1997, the Valley has led the way for the city of St. Louis in landing the NCAA's basketball crown jewels. On June 30, 1997, the Conference was selected to play host to the 2001 NCAA Women's Basketball Final Four at Kiel Center (March 30 and April 1).

On June 25, 1998, The Valley and the St. Louis Local Organizing Committee were tabbed by the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee to play host to the 2005 Final Four (April 2 and 4) at the Trans World Dome. Along with the 2005 award, The Valley will serve as host for the 2004 Midwest Regional at the Dome.

On Dec. 17, 1998, The Valley and the St. Louis Local Organizing Committee were awarded by the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee the 2002 First/Second Rounds of the South Regional (March 14 and 16) at the Trans World Dome. It will be the first time The Valley will serve as a first- and second-round host.

The oldest athletic conference west of the Mississippi River, the Missouri Valley Conference has been cutting edge in the area of its television network.

Beginning in 1993-94, The Valley took its television network in-house and began to produce, syndicate and sell a televised package of regular-season and tournament events for distribution on local broadcast and national cable networks.

The Valley Television Network includes a package of more than 30 men's and women's basketball games and selected other tournament championship events that air on ESPN, espn2, Fox Sports Network, and on statewide cable systems and local broadcast stations throughout the Midwest.

Starting in 1995-96, the Conference broke new ground by bidding out the right to play host to its volleyball, men's and women's soccer and baseball championships. By establishing uniform host criteria, the Conference is able to assist a host institution in a season-long promotional campaign and provide an avenue where hosts can acquire a title sponsor and achieve a profit for the event.

Beginning in 2000, though, the Conference's women's and men's soccer championships will be held at a neutral site -- SportPort in St. Louis, Mo. -- for the first time, with Iron Kids Bread -- a division of the Earthgrains Company -- serving as the title sponsor for both events.

The seeds for this vision were planted by eight administrators representing five institutions, who gathered at the Midland Hotel in Kansas City, Mo., on Jan. 12, 1907. The five schools which formed the Missouri Valley Intercollegiate Athletic Association were Washington University of St. Louis, and the state universities of Iowa, Kansas, Missouri and Nebraska. Two months after the initial meeting, two more schools -- Drake University and Iowa State College -- were admitted.

In the fall of 1907, basketball became the first competitive sport. Today, the Missouri Valley Conference sponsors the following sports: baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country and track (indoor and outdoor), men's and women's golf, men's and women's soccer, softball, men's and women's swimming and diving, men's and women's tennis and women's volleyball.

During the 1992-93 academic year, women's athletics were brought under the Valley umbrella for the first time. The Gateway Collegiate Athletic Conference -- which began in 1982 -- merged with the Missouri Valley Conference and was unveiled as part of the new conference on July 1, 1992.

This season, the league will conduct its 90th outdoor track and field championship, its 83rd tennis championship, its 47th baseball tournament and its 63rd golf championship for the men. Those programs, plus other current sponsored sports of cross country (42 years), indoor track (34), soccer (10) and swimming and diving (7), have helped solidify the Missouri Valley Conference as one of the most respected conferences nationally.

Athletic accomplishments on the men's athletics side include four national basketball championships, 17 trips to the NCAA Men's Basketball Final Four and a 1989 national baseball championship. MVC student-athletes and coaches have become household names during the conference's illustrious history, both during their collegiate careers and, for some, professional careers which have followed stardom in the Missouri Valley Conference.

The Valley, which has a storied past, began honoring that tradition in the summer of 1997, when the Missouri Valley Conference started its Hall of Fame. Hersey Hawkins of Bradley, Larry Bird of Indiana State, Wes Unseld of Louisville, Coach Henry Iba of Oklahoma State, Dave Stallworth of Wichita State, Ed Macauley of Saint Louis and Oscar Robertson of Cincinnati were members of the initial induction class in 1997. In 1998, the Valley recognized Xavier McDaniel of Wichita State, Chel Walker of Bradley and Bob Kurland of Oklahoma State as members of its second Hall of Fame class.

On August 30, 1999, The Valley honored Antoine Carr and Joe Carter of Wichita State, Melody Howard of Southwest Missouri State and Holli Hyche of Indiana State as members of the third Hall of Fame class. On September 11, 2000, the Conference will induct Dick Boushka of Saint Louis University, Cleo Littleton of Wichita State and the late Maury John as members of its fourth Hall of Fame class.

The 1999-00 academic year was, arguably, one of the greatest seasons in the history of the Missouri Valley Conference. In all, the Valley received a total of five at large bids to NCAA championships -- two in baseball and one in men's and women's basketball and men's soccer.

In women's volleyball, Northern Iowa -- under the direction of American Volleyball Coaches Association Coach of the Year Iradge Ahrabi-Fard -- finished 15th in the final AVCA poll and became the first Missouri Valley Conference school to advance to the NCAA volleyball "Sweet Sixteen."

By sending three teams -- Creighton, Evansville and Wichita State -- into the 2000 NCAA Tournament, The Valley continues to cement its position as one of the premier conferences in baseball. Since 1980, some 39 MVC teams have played in the NCAA Tournament, with nine of those teams advancing to the College World Series in the last 16 years.

Bradley became the first league team to play in the CWS in 1950, while Wichita State, which captured the NCAA title in 1989, has now represented The Valley in the last 14 NCAA baseball tournaments and reached the College World Series in six of the last 12 seasons. Former Wichita State greats Joe Carter (1981) and Darrel Dreifort (1993) were named collegiate players of the year.

The Valley has also produced national-caliber teams and student-athletes in its other sponsored sports. In addition to the seven national sprint titles won by Indian State's Hyche in the 1990s, Southern Illinois' Darrin Plab won back-to-back NCAA outdoor high jump titles in 1991 and 1992. In the fall of 1997, Creighton's Johnny Torre was named the collegiate male soccer player of the year for a second-straight year.

From its early beginning to its current standing on the map of college athletics, the Missouri Valley Conference will always continue to be pro-active in its approach. Members of the Conference include Bradley University, Creighton University, Drake University, University of Evansville, Illinois State University, Indiana State University, University of Northern Iowa, Southern Illinois University, Southwest Missouri State University and Wichita State University.

THIS IS UNI

NORTHERN IOWA

This is Northern Iowa

The University of Northern Iowa — Where Great Teaching Makes the Difference

The University of Northern Iowa emphasizes outstanding undergraduate education, with complementary graduate programs at the master's, specialist's and doctoral levels.

Building on its historic strength in teacher education, the University has developed a number of outstanding programs in its colleges of Business, education, Humanities and Fine Arts, Natural Sciences, and Social and Behavioral Sciences. UNI also participates in the bachelor of liberal studies program offered by the Regents Universities, and its Division of Continuing Education and Special Programs sponsors classes off-campus in centers throughout the state. Enrollment on its 860-acre campus stands at 13,774 students from every county in Iowa, 40 states and 48 foreign countries.

UNI's heritage and philosophy place great value on providing a student-centered educational experience. The University nurtures a premiere learning environment — it is small enough to offer its students individualized attention, yet large enough to provide a variety of resources, as well as distinguished faculty. The University prides itself on its reputation as a great teaching school, and most courses are taught by one of more than 600 full-time faculty members who are committed to helping students grow intellectually and personally.

UNI was founded in 1876 as the Iowa State Normal School. In 1909, it became Iowa State Teachers College. In 1961, the name was changed to State College of Iowa, and in 1967, the Iowa Legislature acted to change the status of the institution to that of a university under its present title.

While maintaining its primary emphasis on teacher education, the University has continued its metamorphosis into a comprehensive institution, with nationally acclaimed programs in many disciplines. UNI's accounting program continues to be ranked among the best in the nation. UNI student groups ranging from chemistry to conservation to public relations have been recognized by their respective national groups for the excellence of the University's programs.

UNI's academic reputation has proven a key factor in its selection to U.S. News and World Reports rankings. The school was named among the Midwest's finest institutions. In 1996, UNI was the only public institution among the magazine's top 15 regional universities. UNI received a "1" rating in academic reputation, the highest of any of the top 15 universities in the Midwest region. Other recent issues have named UNI the Midwest's most efficient regional university and first in "best value," as well as an overall "best," "best buy," "up and coming" and "most efficient."

UNI's outreach also extends to the Iowa business community through the College of Business Administration, including the Institute for Decision Making, Small Business Development Center, Small Business Institute, Management and Professional Development Center, Strategic Marketing Services and Business and Community Services. The Iowa Plastics Technology Center and the Center for Applied Research in Metal Casting are among UNI's newest service programs designed to diversify, expand and strengthen Iowa's economy.

In the global arena, UNI's acclaimed Orava Project helps democratize the educational system in the former communist country of Slovakia. As well, student teachers from UNI serve in over 20 countries throughout the world.

UNI offers a wide variety of cultural programs, lectures and conferences. The Continuing Education division, often in conjunction with the University's Office of Conference and Visitor Services, works with business and industry in programs of study and development on the campus. UNI Points of Excellence

- For the fourth consecutive year, U.S. News and World Report ranked the University of Northern Iowa second in the Midwest Region's Top Public Universities category in its America's Best Colleges Guide printed in September 2000.
- The book, Crime at College: The Student Guide to Personal Safety, credits UNI with having the safest campus/community in the country. The book assigns crime rates to 467 college towns in America. UNI/Cedar Falls received the best rating, with 1.14 crimes per 100 people.
- UNI ranked first in the nation for the pass rate of first-time candidates on the Uniform Certified Public Accounting Examination of May 1997, according to the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy. During the 10-year period of 1988-97, UNI holds fifth place among the nation's colleges and universities for the highest percentage of candidates passing all subjects taken.
- UNI's Residential Network, ResNet, provides high-speed network computing to students living in the residence halls. UNI is the first state university in Iowa to provide full Intranet and Internet access to its students in the residence halls.
- The UNI Athletic teams led the Missouri Valley Conference in graduation rate in a 1998 study published by the Des Moines Register.
- UNI has finished fourth the past two years in the Missouri Valley Conference's All-Sports Standings. In 1999-2000, UNI won conference championships in men's indoor track, men's outdoor track, women's volleyball and women's softball.
- UNI Athletics has produced many athletes who have succeeded at the national and international levels. Current NFL and Super Bowl MVP Kurt Warner and World Track Championship Gold Medalist Joey Woody are just two of the many student-athletes who have used their UNI degree as a springboard to success at the professional level. Joining Warner in the NFL this season are former UNI stars Brad Meester, James Jones, Dedric Ward and Bryce Paup.

UNI Athletics Facilities

Northern Iowa Facilities

The UNI-Dome is home to Panther football, men's basketball and track among other activities.

The UNI-Dome

One of the most recognizable landmarks in the state, the UNI-Dome has been hosting high-profile events since its construction in 1976 while gaining a reputation as one of the finest collegiate facilities in the country.

The Dome combines the features of a fieldhouse, football stadium and large auditorium. It contains accommodations for a variety of events such as concerts, exhibitions, trade-shows and convocations in addition to football, basketball, softball, wrestling and track events. It has been host to the NCAA football playoffs, gymnastics and wrestling championships, high school football and basketball, the Iowa high school football playoffs, and was the site of the 1997 NCAA national wrestling championships.

The former air-supported, teflon-coated fabric roof was replaced in the summer of 1998 with a permanent structure. Although normal capacity is 10,000 for basketball, seating can be expanded to over 20,000.

The West Gym

Built in 1925 for a cost of $180,000, the West Gym has been home to Panther Athletics since its construction 75 years ago. The building continues to receive annual renovations each summer. The UNI women's basketball team will play all of their home games in the West Gym this winter.

Among the improvements made to the West Gym in the recent summers are new bleachers, a new floor with new court markings, new lighting, and renovated locker rooms. The Panthers are 18-6 over the past two seasons since moving all games to the West Gym. Last year UNI had an eight-game home winning streak snapped, third longest in school history.

The Gym is also home to two of UNI's strongest programs traditionally; volleyball and wrestling. The Panther volleyball team finished the '90s with a 111-5 record at home, including a 50-match home winning streak from 1992-96, which ranks fourth in NCAA history.

The UNI Volleyball team has lost to only one school in the West Gym since 1993.

University Administration

University President

Robert Koob, a Northern Iowa alumnus, returned to his alma mater in August, 1995, as its eighth president. A 1962 graduate of then-State College of Iowa, the Iowa State Board of Regents named Koob president on July 1, 1995.

Koob was a senior vice president and vice president for academic affairs at California Poly-San Luis Obispo, Calif., from 1990-1995. Prior to his position at Cal Poly, he served as vice president of academic affairs at North Dakota State from 1985-90 and spent 1987-88 as interim president.

At Cal Poly, Koob was director and chair of the Cal Poly Foundation and served on a number of CSU system committees, including the CSU Commission on Telecommunications Infrastructure.

He began his teaching career at North Dakota State in 1967 as an assistant professor of chemistry. He served NDSU in several capacities before assuming the vice presidency, including chair of the chemistry department for six years and acting chair of the department of chemistry, as well as serving as dean of the College of Science and Mathematics from 1981-84.

Koob graduated from SCI with a bachelor's in chemistry and earned his doctorate in chemistry from Kansas in 1967. He and his wife, Yvonne, have seven children.

Rick Hartzell

Director of Athletics

Rick Hartzell, former Director of Athletics and Recreation at Bucknell University, was named Director of Athletics at the University of Northern Iowa on August 9th, 1999. The position became available after Chris Ritrievi resigned after seven years to accept a position at Michigan State University as Director of Development for Intercollegiate Athletics.

Hartzell had been at Bucknell since 1988, directing a Division I program with 1-AA football consisting of 28 sports. During his tenure, he initiated and completed several building projects costing over $10 million dollars and guided the department through the NCAA certification and the gender equity review.

Bucknell's football program claimed the Patriot League title in 1996 and was nationally ranked in both 1996 and '97. The men's cross country, wrestling, men's lacrosse and water polo teams reached the Top 20 in the country during Hartzell's reign, and the men's basketball team played in the NCAA Tournament twice.

Additionally, Hartzell directed a $25 million dollar fundraising effort, and Bucknell ranked first in the nation in the graduation rate of all student-athletes in 1995 and '97, and never ranked lower than fourth in the annual NCAA statistics.

Prior to his appointment at Bucknell, Hartzell was Director of Athletics and Chairman of Physical Education and Recreation at the University of Maryland-Baltimore County from 1985-88, directing a 19-sport program which moved from Division II to Division I during his tenure.

Prior to being named at Baltimore County, he was an Assistant Athletic Director for Football and Men's and Women's Basketball at Northwestern University from 1982-85; was an Administrative Assistant to the Director of Athletics and Assistant Baseball Coach from 1980-82 at the University of Iowa; and an instructor, Assistant Football Coach and Head Baseball Coach from 1977-80 at Coe College in Cedar Rapids, IA.

Hartzell is no stranger to UNI. He played football and baseball for the Panthers. He received his bachelors degree from UNI in Physical Education and English in 1974, and his masters in Educational Administration from UNI in 1977.

He was a five-sport letterman at Klemme, IA, High School. He has two children -- Nate, 20, and Amanda, 18.

Also Working With The Program

Shantelle Weichers

Athletic Training

The Northern Iowa sports medicine program features top-rate facilities and the outstanding services of sports and health care professionals, focusing on injury prevention. Staff members utilize Merac strength-testing devices, provide dietary analysis, measure physiological capacity and outline programs to improve an athlete's flexibility.

Athletic trainers and physicians work together to design rehabilitation programs for injured athletes. A wide variety of facilities and equipment, not only in the Sports Medicine Lab but in the new Wellness and Recreation Center, including swimming pools, Merac equipment, Stairmasters and various exercise bicycles, help athletes rehabilitate injuries and minimize the loss of fitness during recuperative time.

Shantelle Weichers, certified athletic trainer, works with the women's basketball team. Previously she has worked with the Panther baseball team and the Waterloo Bucks baseball team.

Jim Kramer

Strength and Conditioning

The Northern Iowa strength and conditioning program is a blend of science, technology and one-on-one attention to each athlete.

"We want to help an athlete develop sound training habits so that she may develop to her fullest potential," said Jim Kramer, strength and conditioning coach.

Throughout the year, UNI athletes can spend more time working on strength and conditioning than any other aspect of their game. During the off-season, athletes work on strength improvement, speed/agility, power, jump training, conditioning and nutrition. The in-season program is devoted to continuation of strength gains and performance-related conditioning.

Kramer, a 1989 University of Wisconsin-La Crosse graduate, arrived at UNI in July, 1997. Prior to his hiring at UNI, he'd been an assistant director of player development since 1995 for the Georgia Tech Athletic Association, and before that, was strength and conditioning coach from 1993-95.

A native of Platteville, Wis., he received his master's in exercise science from Appalachian State in August, 1993. He was the 91 Kg champion at the American Weightlifting Championships in 1996. In 1999, Kramer was named National Strength and Conditioning Coach Professional of the Year by his peers.

Vicki Melnick

Academic Advising

In addition to an academic adviser within a student-athlete's major, the Panther Athletic Academic Center (PAAC) is available to assist student-athletes with their studies.

Vicki Melnick, athletic academic adviser, is responsible for overseeing PAAC, a program open to all student-athletes. In essence, she is the liaison between busy student-athletes and the academic resources and offices on campus.

Melnick is responsible for advising student-athletes about eligibility issues that relate to class scheduling, dropping and adding classes, selecting a major and university policies and procedures.

PAAC is required for all freshmen and selected others. It provides quiet study areas, free tutors and workshops covering areas including study skills, time management, library orientation and career planning.

Melnick monitors academic progress through weekly meetings with selected student-athletes and reports from faculty. As well, she meets with recruits and makes arrangements for teams during road trips.

She graduated from Michigan State University with a degree in history and secondary education, and has a master's of science in physical education/sport management from Western Illinois University.

Adopt-a-School

Panthers Give Back to the Cedar Valley

The Northern Iowa women's basketball team travels to elementary and middle schools to help students understand the importance of education and a substance-free lifestyle.

What began as a passing thought in Omaha, Neb. has grown by leaps and bounds into the University of Northern Iowa women's basketball program's "Adopt-A-School" outreach.

"It's based on an appreciation for what we, as coaches and student-athletes, are so fortunate to have," said Head Coach Tony DiCecco. "We're in the best position around to be able to express to these students the importance and the value of athletics and academics."

Rather than children "adopting" players, as so often happens in collegiate athletics, the women's team "adopts" schools, in a sort of role-reversal that reaps benefits for both groups involved.

"I think the program gives kids the chance to see that we take both athletics and academics seriously," said senior Nikki Spettel, herself an Elementary Education major. "Reading is important and without it, we couldn't get to where we are today"

The Panther players and coaches speak with elementary and middle school students about the importance of education and the dangers of substance abuse, among other topics.

"It's fun to see the kids be interested in a quality program that teaches not only academic, but life skills," said junior Abbi Schutte. "We both get a lot out of it."

Once the Panthers speak to the elementary and middle school-aged students, the entire school, including teachers and support staff, is invited to a women's basketball game.

Following most home games, the team meets with to talk with the fans and signs posters and fan-provided items.

The program's roots are in Omaha, where DiCecco was an assistant at Creighton University prior to taking the helm in Cedar Falls. While with the Lady Jays, he started a similar program in the Omaha metro area, which also met with success.

UNI players are available to sign autographs after most home games.

"It's (Adopt-a-School) based on an appreciation for what we, as coaches and student-athletes, are so fortunate to have."

2001 Women's Final Four

March 30, April 1

Savvis Center

St. Louis, Mo.

Based in St. Louis since 1985, the Missouri Valley Conference has been aggressive in the approach to playing host to NCAA basketball championship events, producing a revenue-generating in-house television network, bidding out the right to play host to its several sport championships and landing title sponsorships for those events.

Under the direction of Doug Elgin, the ninth commissioner in Valley history, The Valley has played host to the 1993, 1998 and 1999 NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Midwest Regionals. In fact, the Missouri Valley Conference plays host to four NCAA basketball championship events in the next five years.

Starting in 1997, the Valley has led the way for the city of St. Louis in landing the NCAA's basketball crown jewels. On June 30, 1997, the Conference was selected to play host to the 2001 NCAA Women's Basketball Final Four at the Savvis Center (March 30 and April 1).

On June 25, 1998, The Valley and the St. Louis Local Organizing Committee were tabbed by the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee to play host to the 2005 Final Four (April 2 and 4) at the Trans World Dome. Along with the 2005 award, The Valley will serve as host for the 2004 Midwest Regional at the Dome.

On Dec. 17, 1998, The Valley and the St. Louis Local Organizing Committee were awarded by the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee the 2002 First/Second Rounds of the South Regional (March 14 and 16) at the Trans World Dome. It will be the first time The Valley will serve as a first- and second-round host.
